6. [ ] In connection with the CINCPAC briefing of Senators Brewster, Cannon and Young, I talked with Colonel Van Duyn in the office of General Anthis, office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, at the request of Mr. Colby. I advised the Colonel that we had seen all three Senators and that whatever information they had requested at the CINCPAC briefing had been made available or, in the alternative, the Senators were satisfied. In addition, particularly in the cases of Brewster and Cannon, the reasons for not providing the information requested at the CINCPAC briefings were provided. In other words, I explained to the Colonel that whatever problems had arisen out of this had been resolved.
